Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133).
- Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claim 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. It is unclear what "substrate forms the cover layer in respect to the surroundings" means. The Examiner interprets this to mean the substrate is the outer layer of the laminate.
3. Claim 9 provides for the use of the laminate of claim 1 but, since the claim does not set forth any steps involved in the method/process, it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass. A claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.
4. Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed recitation of a use, without setting forth any steps involved in the process, results in an improper definition of a process, i.e., results in a claim which is not a proper process claim under 35 U.S.C. 101. See for example Ex parte Dunki, 153 USPQ 678 (Bd.App. 1967) and Clinical Products, Ltd. v. Brenner, 255 F. Supp. 131, 149 USPQ 475 (D.D.C. 1966).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 1774

2. Claims 1-4, 6-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by USPN 5,733,651 to Wank et al.

Wank teaches a laminate comprising a colored layer. The laminate comprises a translucent polyurethane (PU) layer above a polycarbonate substrate. Between the polyurethane and polycarbonate is a high-temperature resistant colored ink. See col. 2, lines 39-50, col. 8, lines 50-68, and Examples 1-4. Col. 9, lines 45-65 teaches the thermoplastic layers may be of various and different resins such as acrylonitrile/butadiene/styrene copolymer, PMMA, polystyrene, or cellulose ester, meeting the limitations of claims 3, 5, and 7. Regarding claim 4, the properties softening temperature and hardness are inherent. The thickness of the PU layer is taught at col. 9, lines 40-45, meeting the range of at least 0.025 mm. Regarding claim 6, at col. 8, line 63, the colored ink layer is 3 to 50 microns, meeting the limitations.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over USPN 5,733,651 to Wank et al. in view of USPN 4,865,913 to Takeuchi et al.

5. Wank is relied upon for claim 1 as above. Wank does not teach a thermal transfer ink sheet having an intermediate layer of a different material. Takeuchi teaches a thermal transfer ink sheet having an intermediate layer (15) of adhesive between the substrate (2) of polymeric films or paper and the hot-melt ink layer (3). The adhesive layer is of acrylate, or polyacrylonitrile, polyester or other resins at col. 3, lines 25-57. The adhesive layer is used to hold the ink layer. Hence it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to modify the laminate of Wank to include an intermediate layer that is of a different material, like the adhesive of Takeuchi to hold ink to a substrate as taught by Takeuchi in Comparative Example 3.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. USPN 5,804,353 to Cushner et al. teaches a process for making flexographic printing plates. USPN 5,187,044 to Prioleau et al. teaches flexographic printing plates.
